

Cry Muster
up that first saliferous, minute molecule and allow it to be manacled to an identical, diminutive drop. Then together, their microscopic magnificence shall reconcile their own insignificance, before composing a compound, whose aggregate amounts shall cause torrents of tumultuous tears to secrete & fill the darkest, deepest dimensions of the vast oceans and their nethermost zones. Provide approval to that first drop and the ache in your heart will lessen then dissolve.
